

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 27, 2011
Contact: Janice Greenberg
Director of Communications
jgreenberg@utilimetrics.org
+1.847.227.0478

AUTOVATION OFFERS COMPLIMENTARY EXHIBIT HALL PASSES TO UTILITIES
Sept. 25-28, Gaylord National Resort and Convention Center near Washington, DC

DES PLAINES, Ill. –Autovation 2011, the most established conference and exposition that connects utility employees to industry peers seeking to improve operations is Sept. 25-28 at the Gaylord National Resort and Convention Center near Washington, DC. Utility professionals are invited to visit the exhibit hall at no charge.

The industry's leading suppliers will have booths at the expo and will be available to help utility professionals find solutions to the challenges they currently face or expect to face in the future. The exhibit hall is open Monday, Sept. 26 11:30 a.m.-6:30 p.m. and Tuesday, Sept. 27 11:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m.

The free exhibit hall pass does not include education sessions, general sessions, breakfasts, lunches, networking receptions or drink tickets. However, utilities may participate in these activities by paying the conference fee which is $895 for Utilimetrics members and $1200 for nonmembers before September 1.

To qualify for the free exhibit hall pass verification of utility employment (business card or identification) must be provided. Consultants and vendors who represent utilities do not qualify.

For Autovation information, go to <http://www.utilimetrics.org/Autovation2011i.aspx>.

If you have questions about the free exhibit hall pass, contact Rande LaTour at +1.847.227.0512 or rlatour@utilimetrics.org.

###